

Check List For Lithium Batteries

- Is the battery IEC 62619 Certified
- Has the manufacturer provided a certificate to confirm they actually do comply (your insurance may ask for this)
- Does the battery have an integrated BMS
- Does the battery have a suitable monitoring device
- Does the system not exceed 48V
- If the battery is installed internal to the vehicle, is the battery compartment properly sealed
- Is the battery securely fastened to the battery compartment
- Is suitable ventilation provided in the battery compartment
- Have all connections been checked
- Has the battery been charged/discharged/recharged

Notes
